MASTER THE MOUNTAIN WITH TAMARACK'S SUMMER TRAILBLAZERS PROGRAM

TAMARACK, Idaho (June 10, 2020) – Tamarack Resort offers more than skills classes this summer. The Resort is giving parents peace of mind as kids enjoy mountain and water activities. Designed for kids ranging in age from seven to 14, the Summer Trailblazers Program is designed provides them personal training in watersports and mountain biking from certified professional instructors. The program begins June 12, 2020.

Kids can join USA Waterski and Watersports certified instructors on the water every Friday evening from 5 PM to 8 PM beginning June 12, 2020 through August 14, 2020. There they will perfect their skills in waterskiing, surfing and wakeboarding.

Mini-mountain enthusiasts can enjoy a four-session course on mastering mountain biking led by Professional Mountain Bike Instructors Association (PMBIA) certified trainers. The sessions will be held over the course of four weeks from 2 PM to 4 PM beginning June 14th.

Whether you're a beginner or nearly a seasoned pro, the Summer Trailblazers Program is perfect for children of all skill levels. Kids will receive undivided attention from instructors as classes allow no more than six students at a time. Classes are $40 per person and can be booked online at www.tamarackidaho.com/summer-trailblazers.
